2019 Purisima Mountain Vineyard Grenache Rosé

A shade darker in color compared to the incredibly well received 2018 vintage, the 2019 vintage is a blend of 88% Grenache and 12% Syrah. Expressive and complex with aromas and flavors of ripe cranberry, strawberry, watermelon, citrus, melon and tropical fruits, the 2019 is intensely flavored and well-structured with vibrant acidity that carries the complex fruits on a very long finish.

“Showing an orange-tinted shade of pink, this bottling begins with strawberry, cotton candy and steely aromas. There is great zip to the sip, where chalky earth flavors are surrounded by edges of strawberry cream. The texture lasts deep into the finish.”
